IN THE MOTHER CITY.

New York Imposingly Celebrating Columbus' Day.

A Few of the Scenes and Events in the Metropolitan City Graphically Described.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—To-day the American Republic puts on its holiday garb and proclaims to the world in a jubilee of oratory, song and pyrotechnics, that it is just four hundred years to a day since the Santa Maria and her two companion ships plowed their bows into the shallow waters off the American coast.

The celebration has its climax in Chicago, where the World's Fair buildings are being dedicated, but every city, every town, every hamlet in the United States is joining in the jubilee. The school celebration throughout the country is uniform, and from the rising of the sun on the Eastern coast to the moment it drops in heavenly grandeur behind the golden gates of the Pacific, no moment will be without its echo of the patriotic voices of America's children, no moment without a salute to the American flag.

At 9 o'clock to-day the schools assemble. At 9:30 a detail of veterans reach the school building in Maine as in California, in Dakota as in Louisiana. A color guard of pupils will meet the old soldiers at the entrance and escort them into the building.

At a given signal the pupils will gather in the large hall or in the yard, where the exercises are to take place, and the master of ceremonies will begin the reading of the President's proclamation declaring the day a national holiday. As the reader finishes he announces: "In accordance with this recommendation by the President of the United States, and as a sign of our devotion to our country, let the flag of the nation be unfurled above the school."

As the flag reaches the top of the staff the veterans will leave the assembly in "Three Cheers for 'Old Glory.'" Then at the signal from the principal the pupils face the flag, and give it the military salute, saying, "I pledge allegiance to my flag and the Republic for which it stands; one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Then in unison will sing, "America." A prayer and an acknowledgment of God follows, and the song of Columbus day will have its first rendition in public. Then follows the Columbian address and after this the ode by Edna Dean Proctor.

But to-day's celebrations can only be briefly referred to—a complete record of them would fill a volume, not to say a newspaper. Albany's civic and military organizations are on parade.

Indianapolis has a tremendous parade under the marshaling of General Carnahan, the great Knight of Pythias, and Gen. Fred Knefler, and in the evening it will enjoy a festival at Tomlinson's Hall. Pittsburgh has General J. F. Denniston and Adjutant General McCandless in charge of its parade. Chattanooga will celebrate with a great parade of all the school children. They will march four abreast down Market street, and will salute while passing along this thoroughfare a large United States flag, that will be hung across. The exercises proper will take place at the court house, and in the main will be those of the official program.

In Texas the day is proclaimed one of thanksgiving by the Governor and the celebrations are largely confined to the schools of the State.

Baltimore has a tremendous torch-light parade of Catholic Societies of Maryland, in which there are to be thirty-three bands and twenty-one floats. Thirty-five thousand will be in the parade. The Italian societies of Washington will also be in the line. Thirty-five thousand are to be in line in the civic and military parade in Boston.

Wilmington, Del., will have two parades, one in which only whites will participate and another by the colored societies.

Nine thousand children will be in line in Scranton at the unveiling of its monument, and ex-Gov. Beaver will probably speak.

Wikeleslar celebrates with parade in the morning and festival in the evening.

Milwaukee's Catholic societies will parade and a secular celebration will be held in the Exposition Hall. The military will also be in line.

Brooklyn has devoted $20,000 to its celebration. Two great parades take place, one civic and military and one by the children of the Catholic schools. In the evening the Columbian Club will give a reception at the Academy of Music to Bishop McConnell.

Cleveland has a parade, a great meeting in Music Hall and an interesting flag-raising.

Toledo has a great parade and a mass meeting, in which the children of the public schools will take a prominent part.

Philadelphia's school children parade, each carrying a flag, after which come exercises in Metropolitan Rink.

Louisville's Catholic societies will parade. And so on ad infinitum. Night celebrations with historical addresses are arranged for in nearly every city in the country. In New York alone there is apathy, but the metropolis did its share earlier in the month.

Is Marriage a Failure?

Have you been trying to get the best out of existence without health in your life? Have you been trying to get out your life from the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion? Are you sleepless at night? Do you awake in the morning feeling languid, with coated tongue and salivary, haggard looks? Don't do it. A shout at the camp tells how Aune Fanny's Health Restorer has cured others; it will cure you. Trial package free. Large size 50c, at Tudhope Drug Co.

ACCIDENT TO CHILDREN.

Seeds Fall, Lying Down 500 and Many Have Limbs Broken.

WEST WINSTED, Conn., Oct. 21.—Wednesday afternoon eight hundred pupils of the public schools, with principals and teachers, marched through the streets and went to the rink to sing out your life from the effects of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and Indigestion? Are you sleepless at night? Do you awake in the morning feeling languid, with coated tongue and salivary, haggard looks? Don't do it. A shout at the camp tells how Aune Fanny's Health Restorer has cured others; it will cure you. Trial package free. Large size 50c, at Tudhope Drug Co.

A crowd was quickly on the spot to rescue the children, some of whom were pulled out with broken arms, legs and collar bones or otherwise hurt, some being unconscious. All the town doctors were summoned, and many teams were pressed into service to take the children home. None were fatally hurt. The smallest children, those from five to two years old, occupied the top seats, which had evidently been carelessly constructed.

The community is excited and indignant, and there have been threats of lynching Carpenter Curtis, while there are said to be many lawsuits in store for him.

NO PURSE FOR CORBETT IN MAY, But $25,000 if He Meets Mitchell in February.

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 21.—President Noel says he will not offer any purse for the Corbett-Mitchell fight in May, but will give $25,000 if the men will meet early in February.

A Mean Joke.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 21.—Over 200 cards were sent out announcing the marriage of Susie Adams and William T. Huskey, prominent young people. The guests, sent to Covenant Presbyterian church to witness the ceremony, but no couple appeared. Both parties claim they haven't thought of marriage.

Family Quarrel Ends in Murder. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Oct. 21.—The town of Dunlow, thirty miles in the interior, was the scene of a murder Tuesday night. John Thompson was shot through the heart by Dr. Thornbury in the latter's drug store. The shooting was the outcome of a quarrel between the families of the two men.

American Murdered in Mexico. MONTEREY, Mex., Oct. 21.—S. G. Tarrant, an American tourist, of Buffalo, was killed at Cortez, a mining town near this city, Tuesday. It is supposed that he was murdered by robbers and his body thrown from a hundred-foot cliff, at the bottom of which it was found terribly mangled.

IN A LOCAL WAY.

Clarksville Celebrates the Discovery of America.

The Public Schools And Academy Exercises Largely Attended and Very Interesting.

Columbus Day was fittingly observed in Clarksville to-day. The postoffice and banks were closed and business houses were decorated with flags and banners in honor of the day.

The public school exercises were appropriate and interesting. The first, second and third floors of Howell school had their exercises this morning. They consisted of selections from the program prepared for the public schools of the country and were carried out to perfection. The first floor had its exercises at 9 o'clock, the second at 9:30 and the third at 10.

The Graham Literary Society, branch 428 of the Lyceum League of America, will declaim patriotic speeches at 7:30 this evening. At the same time Dancy Fort, by invitation, will deliver an address before the society on American patriotism. Mrs. Slayden and Miss Bettie Garland will furnish the music. This will be an interesting occasion and the public is invited.

At the opera-house this morning, after the public school exercises were over, all interest seemed to center. The house was filled beyond its seating capacity with a select audience to witness the Columbian exercises of the Clarksville Female Academy, under the direction of its efficient principal, Mrs. E. G. Buford. The opera-house had been prettily decorated with flags, all emblematic of the day. The entire school was arrayed on the stage, costumed in red, white and blue, symbolical of the national flag. The exercises consisted of songs and recitations by the school, and the program was heartily enjoyed by the very large and appreciative audience. The excellent manner in which the school was drilled for the occasion showed careful training. In fact the Academy never undertakes anything that is not a success.

Among such an array of talent it is difficult in so short a space to particularize. "Independence Bell," however, recited by Miss Hettie Major, "Ode to America," by Miss Mattie Gold, and the "Ode to Tennessee," by Miss Ethel Adams, all deserve special mention. The young ladies acquitted themselves well and received hearty encores. "Columbia, Gem of the Ocean," a chorus by the school was remarkably well executed, and was led by Miss Lena Morrow admirably.

The program in full was as follows, and there was not a hitch in it at any point:

After the ceremony a few invited friends partook of a bountiful supper tendered in honor of the event. It was greatly enjoyed by all present. A DANGEROUS PRISONER.

Sheriff Sory Brings Him Here for Safe Keeping.

Sheriff B. H. Sory, of Robertson county, arrived in the city last night, having in charge Jas. Miller, colored, whom he turned over to the Montgomery county authorities to see if they can do anything with him. He has given the officers of Robertson county so much trouble that they want to see if a term on the Montgomery county chain gang won't do him some good. He is a very boisterous and unruly prisoner, so the Sheriff says, and is also a dangerous man. He was fined $100 in Robertson county for selling whisky without license, and is also guilty of other crimes. He is now in jail here and will soon be put at work.

FIENDISHNESS.

Attempt at Homestead, Pa., to Burn a Boarding House

In Which Over One Hundred Men Were Sleeping.

They Were Non-Union Men Employed by Carnegie.

OFFICERS DISCOVER THE FLAMES NOT A MOMENT TOO SOON.

THEY PURSUE THE FIREBUG BUT HE SUCCEEDS IN ESCAPING

After Several Ineffectual Shots Had Been Fired at Him—A Quantity of Oily Waste Found Burning Fiercely Under the Rear of the House—In the Future Non-Union Boarding Houses Will Have a Special Guard Placed Over Them at Night.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Oct. 21.—At 9:30 o'clock Thursday morning Deputy Sheriff Ferguson and Cunningham discovered flames issuing from the basement of the largest boarding house in the town, conducted by Mrs. O'Neill, corner of Third avenue and City Farm lane. One hundred and twenty-five non-union workmen at the Carnegie Homestead mill were sleeping in the house at the time.

The deputies gave chase after a man who was seen running from the rear of the building and fired several shots at him, but without effect. They then returned and then extinguished the fire. They discovered that a quantity of oily waste, such as is used in packing car journal boxes, had been placed under the rear of the house and was burning fiercely. A few moments' time would doubtless have placed the fire beyond control.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Ritchie will from now on place a special guard over every non-union boarding house in the town at night.

FIRED INTO

A Prosecutor's House—Attempts to Murder an Indiana Officer.

ELWOOD, Ind., Oct. 21.—It was learned Wednesday evening that the residence of Deputy Prosecutor W. W. Spring, of this city, had been fired into about midnight Tuesday night by unknown parties, evidently with the intention of ending his life. Two shots were fired, passing through the front window and lodging in the opposite wall. There has been considerable animosity existing between him and the police officers of the city, and this is thought by many to be an attempt to intimidate him, as this is the second attempt on his life in the last three weeks.

AUSTRIA IS SHY

When It Comes to Publishing the Triple Alliance.

ROME, Oct. 21.—The government is very anxious to secure Austria's consent to make public the triple alliance treaty, which it is believed guarantees the possession of Rome to the national government. For that very reason it is understood that Austria opposes the publication. She hesitates on account of her large Catholic population and does not want to still further strain her relations with the Vatican.

RUSSIAN RAILROAD WRECK.

Eight Cars Destroyed—Twelve People Killed and Many Injured.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 21.—A passenger train was thrown off the track near the station of Penza, capital of the province of that name. The wreck was a terrible one, eight cars being destroyed, twelve persons killed and many injured.

THE WORLD'S FAIR.

A Great Parade And The Dedicatory Oration.

Henry Watterson on Hand and Speaks For One Hour—His Eloquent Welcome to Mankind.

Special to the Leaf-Chronicle.

CHICAGO, Oct. 21.—The quadricentennial anniversary day of America's discovery was ushered in with the booming of cannons, with the raising of flags and with all the ceremony due the great day. It is the second of Chicago's public holidays and the climax of its week's festivities. Never in the history of the Garden City has so great a throng been within its boundaries, and never has it sheltered so vast a host of prominent men, representing every State in the Union, the nation and every civilized country on the face of the globe. The civic parade of yesterday pales into insignificance beside the great pageant which is moving through the great thoroughfares of the World's Fair buildings. The military procession formed near the Auditorium on Michigan avenue and proceeded in accordance with the program heretofore announced. It was a splendid parade, too grand for a description.

Hon. Henry Watterson, who was chosen to deliver the dedicatory oration of the World's Fair, was on hand promptly, and spoke for one hour. He reviewed the progress of American civilization from the day Columbus set foot on the soil of the new world down to the present, in a masterly way. In his welcome to mankind he said:

"I cannot trust myself to proceed. We have come here not so much to recall bygone sorrows and glories as to bask in the sunshine of present prosperity and happiness, to interchange patriotic greetings and indulge good auguries, and above all, to meet upon the threshold, the stranger within our gate, not as a foreigner, but as a guest and friend, for whom nothing that we have is too good.

"From wheresoever he cometh we welcome him with all our hearts; the son of the Rhone and the Caronne, our god-mother France, France, to whom we owe so much, he shall be our Lafayette; the son of the Rhine and the Moselle, he shall be our Goethe and our Wagner; the son of the Campagna and the Vesuvian Bay, he shall be our Michael Angelo and our Garibaldi; the son of Arragon, and the Indies, he shall be our Christopher Columbus, fully honored at last throughout the world.

"Our good cousin of England needs no words of special civility and courtesy from us. For him the latching string is ever on the outside, though whether it be or not we are sure that he will enter and make himself at home. A common language enables us to do full justice to one another at the festive board, or in the arena of debate, warning both of us in equal tones against further parley in the field of arms.

"All nations and all creeds be welcome here; from the Bosphorus and the Black Sea, the Vienneese woods and the Danubian plains; from Holland dyke to Alpine crag; from Belgrade and Calcutta round to China seas and the busy marts of Japan, the isles of the Pacific and the far away capes of Africo-Armenian; Christian and Jew, the American, loving no country except his own, but loving all mankind as his brother, bids you enter and fear not; bids you partake with us these fruits of four hundred years of American civilization and development, and behold these trophies of one hundred years of American independence and freedom."

A Cholera Scare.

A reported outbreak of cholera at Helmetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamestown, two miles from Helmetta, says Chamberlain's colic, cholera and diarrhoea remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by Owen & Moore, Druggists.
